In the event Company has been approved for credit terms, payment for that order will be due no later than thirty (30) calendar days from the date of the invoice, unless a shorter time period is specified on the invoice or otherwise communicated to Company in writing. UOP will determine in its sole discretion if Company qualifies for credit terms. If credit terms are granted, UOP may change Company’s credit terms at any time in its sole discretion and may, without notice to Company, modify or withdraw credit terms for any order, including open orders. UOP may, at its sole discretion require additional security (e.g., bank guarantee, standby letter of credit, corporate guarantee, etc.) for a Company with no established credit terms and will be determined by UOP on a case-by-case basis. Partial shipments will be invoiced as they are shipped. UOP is not required to provide a hard copy of the invoice and may submit invoices electronically. Payments must be made in US Dollars accompanied by remittance detail containing at a minimum the Company’s order number, UOP’s invoice number and amount paid per invoice. If Company makes any unapplied payment and fails to reply to UOP’s request for instruction on allocation within seven (7) calendar days, UOP may set off such unapplied cash amount against any Company past-due invoice(s) at its sole discretion. An unapplied payment shall mean payment(s) received from Company without adequate remittance detail to determine what invoice the payment(s) shall be applied to. Disputes as to invoices must be accompanied by detailed supporting information and are deemed waived fifteen (15) calendar days following the invoice date. UOP reserves the right to correct any inaccurate invoices. Any corrected invoice or invalid dispute must be paid by the original invoice payment due date or the issuance date of the corrected invoice, whichever is later. Company must pay the undisputed amount of the invoice within the original invoice payment due date. If Company is delinquent in its payment obligations to UOP for any undisputed amount, UOP may, at UOP’s sole option and until all delinquent amounts and late charges, if any, are paid:
 - a. be relieved of its obligations with respect to guarantees, including without limitation, turnaround times, spares support and lead-times;
 - b. refuse to process any credit to which Company may be entitled;
 - c. set off any credit or sum owed by UOP to Company against any undisputed amount owed by Company to UOP including but not limited to amounts owed under any contract or order between the Parties;
 - d. withhold performance, including, without limitation, suspending all Work, the prior grant of any license rights and future shipments to Company;
 - e. declare Company’s performance in breach and terminate this Agreement;
 - f. repossess products, reports, technical information or any other items delivered pursuant to this Agreement for which payment has not been made;

- k. if Company is delinquent on a payment schedule, accelerate all remaining payments and declare the total outstanding balance then due and owing;
- l. require Company provide UOP, a payment improvement plan on terms and conditions satisfactory to UOP, as signed and assured by Company's senior finance officer that may include, but not limit to additional security (e.g., bank guarantee, standby letter of credit, corporate guarantee, etc.); or
- m. combine any of the above rights and remedies as may be permitted by applicable law.

Surcharges: UOP may, from time to time and in its sole discretion, issue surcharges under this Agreement in order to mitigate and/or recover increased operating costs arising from or related to, without limitation: (a) foreign currency exchange variation; (b) increased cost of third party content, labor and materials; (c) impact of duties, tariffs, and other government actions; and (d) any other circumstances that increase UOP's costs, including, without limitation, increases in freight, labor, material or component costs, and increased costs due to inflation (collectively, "Economic Surcharges"). UOP will invoice Company, through a revised or separate invoice, and Company agrees to pay for the Economic Surcharges pursuant to the standard payment terms in this Agreement. If a dispute arises with respect to Economic Surcharges, and that dispute remains open for more than fifteen (15) calendar days, UOP may, in its sole discretion, withhold performance and future shipments or combine any other rights and remedies as may be provided under this Agreement or permitted by law until the dispute is resolved. The terms of this section shall prevail in the event of inconsistency with any other terms in this Agreement. Any Economic Surcharges, as well as the timing, effectiveness, and method of determination thereof, will be separate from and in addition to any changes to pricing that are affected by any other provisions in this Agreement.

- 2. TAXES AND DUTIES - UOP's pricing excludes all taxes (including but not limited to sales, use, excise, environmental, value-added, and other similar taxes or fees imposed on the sale or transfer of goods or provision of services under this Agreement), tariffs and duties (including, but not limited to, amounts imposed upon the product(s) or bill of material thereof under any Trade Act, including, but not limited to, the Trade Expansion Act, section 232 and the Trade Act of 1974, section 301) and charges (collectively "Taxes"). Company will pay all Taxes resulting from this Agreement or UOP's performance under this Agreement, whether imposed, levied, collected, withheld, or assessed now or later. If UOP is required to impose, levy, collect, withhold, or assess any Taxes on any transaction under this Agreement, then in addition to the Purchase Price, UOP will invoice Company for such Taxes unless, at the time of order placement, Company furnishes UOP with a valid exemption certificate or other documentation sufficient to verify exemption from the Taxes, including, but not limited to, a direct pay permit. If any Taxes are required to be withheld from amounts paid or payable to UOP under this Agreement, (i) the amount due to UOP will be increased so that the amount UOP receives, net of the Taxes withheld, equals the amount UOP would have received had no Taxes been required to be withheld, (ii) Company will withhold the required amount of Taxes and pay such Taxes on behalf of UOP to the relevant taxing authority in accordance with applicable law, and (iii) Company will forward proof of such withholding sufficient to establish the withholding amount and recipient to UOP within sixty (60) calendar days of payment. In no event will UOP be liable for Taxes paid or payable by Company.
- 3. SETOFF - Neither Company nor its Affiliated entities (nor any representative or agent thereof) shall attempt to set off or recoup any invoiced amounts or any portion thereof against other amounts that are due or may become due from UOP, its parent, Affiliates, subsidiaries or other legal entities, business divisions, or units.
- 4. MINIMUM ORDER VALUE AND CHANGES – A. Depending on Company's local region and the products being purchased, UOP may impose a minimum order value, minimum order quantities and processing fees for custom orders or orders below the imposed minimum thresholds. Change Order is a written order signed by Company and UOP authorizing a change in the Equipment and/or Services or adjustment in the Price or a change to the schedule; C. Company may request UOP to submit proposals for changes in the Equipment and/or Services, subject to acceptance by UOP. If Company chooses to proceed, such changes in the Equipment and/or Services will be authorized by a Change Order. Unless otherwise specifically agreed to in writing by both Parties, if UOP submits a proposal pursuant to such request but Company chooses not to proceed, Company shall issue a Change Order to reimburse UOP for any and all costs incurred in preparing the proposal; D. UOP may make a written request to Company to modify this Agreement based on the Company's action or inaction, or the receipt or discovery of information, not expressly contemplated by this Agreement that UOP believes will cause a change to the Equipment and/or Services, Price, schedule, level of performance, or other facet of this Agreement. UOP will submit its request to Company within a reasonable time after receipt of, or the discovery of, information that UOP believes will cause a change to the Equipment and/or Services, Price, schedule, level of performance, or other facet of this Agreement. This request shall be submitted by UOP before proceeding to execute the change, except in an emergency endangering life or property, in which case UOP shall have the authority to act, in its discretion, to prevent threatened damage, injury or loss (an "Emergency"). UOP's request will include information necessary to substantiate the effect of the change and any impacts to the Equipment and/or Services, including any change in schedule or Price. Company will have five (5) business days to accept or reject the Change Order. If Company fails to respond within five (5) business days, or in the case of an Emergency, the Change Order will be deemed accepted and Company shall extend the schedule and/or pay for the change in the Equipment and/or Services. If, after the Company has rejected the Change Order, Company and UOP cannot agree on the amount of the adjustment in the Price or the schedule, it shall be escalated to the VP of operations, general manager of the business, or business leader with similar responsibilities. If no agreement can be reached, it shall be escalated to the president for which the business resides. Any change in the Price or schedule resulting from such claim shall be authorized by Change Order. If Company rejects the Change Order, UOP shall not be obligated to perform the additional or altered supply of the Equipment and/or Services.
- 5. COMPANY CAUSED DELAY - UOP is not liable for any delays or increased costs caused by delays in obtaining parts, materials, equipment, services or software from a Company-designated supplier, for Company's failure to timely provide information required for the supply of the Equipment and/or Services, or any other delay caused by, or within the control of, Company. If Company-caused delays occur, then the Price, delivery dates, and other affected terms will be adjusted to reflect increased cost, delay, and other adverse impact suffered by UOP. In the event that a delay caused by the Company is ongoing for a period of time which is ninety (90) calendar days or longer, UOP may provide notice to Company that it is cancelling this Agreement or affected portion thereof.

The Receiving Party will hold each item of Proprietary Information disclosed confidential and will not copy or use Proprietary Information except as necessary for the Permitted Activities. The Receiving Party will protect Proprietary Information using the same degree of care it uses to protect its own Proprietary Information, but in no event less than a reasonable degree of care. Each Party will retain ownership of its Proprietary Information including, without limitation, all rights in patents, copyrights, trademarks and trade secrets. No right or license is granted by this clause to either Party or its customers, employees or agents, expressly or by implication, with respect to the Proprietary Information or any patent, patent application or other proprietary right of the other Party, notwithstanding the expiration of the confidentiality obligations stated in this clause. The Receiving Party’s obligations under this clause with respect to Business Information will terminate 10 years after the effective date of this Agreement. The Receiving Party has no duty to protect any information that is:
(a) developed by Receiving Party and in its possession before Receiving Party’s receipt of such information under this Agreement;

The above exceptions will not be construed as an express or implied grant under any intellectual property rights of Disclosing Party. An individual feature of the Proprietary Information will not be considered to be within the above exceptions merely because the feature is embraced by general information within the exceptions. A combination of features of the Proprietary Information will not be considered to be within the above exceptions unless the combination itself and its principle of operation are within the exceptions. The Receiving Party may disclose the Proprietary Information only to its and its Affiliates’ employees and contract employees having a "need to know" with respect to the Permitted Activities. The Receiving Party will ensure each employee or contract employee to whom Proprietary Information is disclosed is aware of this Agreement and has signed a contract making them subject to confidentiality obligations no less stringent than those imposed upon the Receiving Party under this Agreement. Despite the restrictions on disclosure in this Agreement:

(a) Company may to the extent necessary for the Company’s Permitted Activities disclose minor, non-critical portions of Proprietary Information to a vendor of commodity equipment or materials or a supplier of construction labor to obtain quotes and procure such materials or services, provided Company first ensures that such third party has signed an agreement with Company or UOP or UOP’s Affiliate containing restrictions on use, copying and disclosure no less stringent than those imposed upon the Company under this Agreement; and
(b) UOP may to extent necessary for UOP’s Permitted Activities disclose Proprietary Information to any third party who has signed an agreement with UOP, its Affiliate or Company containing appropriate restrictions on use, copying and disclosure.

If the Receiving Party is required to disclose Proprietary Information pursuant to applicable law, statute, regulation, or court order, the Receiving Party will give the Disclosing Party prompt written notice of the request to provide a reasonable opportunity to object to the disclosure in order to secure a protective order or appropriate remedy. Each Party acknowledges and agrees that if it breaches any obligations of this Non-Disclosure And Non-Use Of Proprietary Information clause, the other Party may suffer immediate and irreparable harm for which monetary damages alone shall not be a sufficient remedy and that, in addition to all other remedies that the non-breaching Party may have, the non-breaching Party shall be entitled to i) seek injunctive relief, specific performance or any other form of relief in a court of competent jurisdiction, including, but not limited to, equitable relief, to remedy a breach or threatened breach hereof by the breaching Party; and ii) enforce this Non-Disclosure And Non-Use Of Proprietary Information clause. Upon written request of the Disclosing Party, the Receiving Party agrees to return the disclosed Proprietary Information and all copies thereof to the Disclosing Party, or destroy the disclosed Proprietary Information and provide a written certificate of destruction to the Disclosing Party except for Proprietary Information that exists as part of regularly generated electronic backup data or archive data, the destruction of which is not reasonably practicable. For the avoidance of doubt, such electronic copies will be subject to the restrictions on use, copying and disclosure in this clause. The equipment that are proprietary to UOP must be used only for the purpose for which they are furnished and will not be used for any other purpose or transhipped to any other destination without UOP’s prior written consent. If the Company is not the end user, the furnishing by UOP to Company of the Equipment and the Proprietary Information of UOP for use by an end user (where authorized by UOP) shall be conditional upon Company ensuring any end user and/or all other intermediaries involved in the sale and supply of the Equipment to the end user is bound, through written agreement with the Company or UOP direct, by restrictions on use and disclosure no less onerous than those contained in this clause, including the prohibition on analyzing and reverse

UOP, at its expense, may audit Company to determine compliance with such provisions upon no less than thirty (30) days' advance written notice, and Company will provide reasonable assistance to UOP to complete such audit.

F. Non-Compliance. Company's failure to comply with this provision will be deemed a material breach of this Agreement, and Company will notify UOP immediately if it violates, or reasonably believes that it will violate, any terms of this provision. Company agrees that UOP may take any and all actions required to ensure full compliance with all applicable laws, including Sanctions Laws, Export/Import Control Laws and anti-corruption laws, without UOP incurring any liability.

9. EXCUSABLE DELAY OR NONPERFORMANCE - A. Force Majeure. Except for payment obligations, neither Party will be liable to the other for any failure to meet its obligations due to any force majeure event. Notwithstanding the prior sentence, quantities affected by this Force Majeure clause may, at the option of UOP, be eliminated from this Agreement without liability, but this Agreement will otherwise remain unaffected. Force majeure is an event beyond the reasonable control of the non-performing Party and includes, without limitation:

1. Delays or refusals to grant an export license or the suspension or revocation thereof,

2. Any other acts of any government that would limit a Party's ability to perform under this Agreement,
3. Fires, earthquakes, floods, tropical storms, hurricanes, tornadoes, severe weather conditions, or any other acts of God,
4. Pandemics, epidemics, quarantines, or regional medical crises,
5. The presence of Hazardous Substances of Mold,
6. Shortages or inability to obtain materials, equipment, energy, or components,
7. Labor strikes or lockouts,
8. Riots, strife, insurrection, civil disobedience, landowner disturbances, armed conflict, terrorism, or war, declared or not (or impending threat of any of the foregoing, if such threat might reasonably be expected to cause injury to people or property),
9. Inability or refusal by Company's directed third party suppliers to provide UOP parts, services, manuals, or other information necessary to the equipment or services to be provided by UOP under this Agreement, or
10. Any other cause beyond the non-performing Party's reasonable control.

If a force majeure event causes a delay, then the date of performance will be extended by the period of time that the non-performing Party is actually delayed, or for any other period as the Parties may agree in writing.

When performance is excused, UOP may allocate its services or its supplies of materials and products in any manner that is fair and reasonable. However, UOP will not be obligated to obtain services, materials or products from other sources or to allocate materials obtained by UOP from third Parties for UOP's internal use.

Should any part of the system or any equipment in each case that are related to the Equipment be damaged by fire, water, lightning, acts of God, the presence of Hazardous Substances or Mold, third Parties, or any other cause beyond the control of UOP, any repairs or replacement shall be paid for by Company.

For the avoidance of doubt, there need not be a Force Majeure Event to invoke Economic Surcharges in clause 1 (Pricing and Payments). In the event that a Force Majeure Event is ongoing for a period of time which is ninety (90) calendar days or longer, UOP may provide notice to Company that it is cancelling this Agreement or affected portion thereof. B. COVID-19. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, in light of the COVID-19 pandemic, the effects of which cannot be foreseen, the Parties agree that UOP shall be entitled to an equitable extension of time to deliver or perform its supply of the Equipment and/or Services and appropriate additional compensation to the extent UOP's delivery or performance, or the delivery or performance of its suppliers and/or subcontractors, is in any way delayed, hindered or otherwise affected by the COVID-19 pandemic.

- 10. SUSPENSION AND TERMINATION - UOP may terminate this Agreement immediately upon notice to Company upon the occurrence of any of the following events: (a) Company fails to perform or breaches any of its obligations and covenants under this Agreement, and such default continues for more than sixty (60) calendar days after written notice specifying the failure to perform or breach (unless such breach is determined to be incapable of cure, determined in UOP's sole discretion, in which case termination is effective immediately); (b) Company fails to make any payment hereunder due within five (5) calendar days after written notice of such non-payment; (c) attempted assignment of this Agreement by Company or any rights hereunder without UOP's prior written consent, which includes a sale or transfer of substantially all of Company's assets, a majority interest in its voting stock, or a merger or consolidation with one or more entities; (d) Company experiences one or more of the following insolvency-related circumstances: (i) it ceases to function as a going concern or to conduct its operations in the normal course of business (including an inability to meet obligations as they mature), (ii) a receiver is appointed for its assets, (iii) bankruptcy or insolvency proceedings are brought by or against it, or (iv) it makes an assignment for the benefit of creditors; (e) Company violates the law or any of its owners, officers, principals, members or partners is indicted or convicted on charges of felony, conversion, embezzlement or any morally reprehensible act which could, in UOP's sole discretion, adversely impact UOP; or (f) Company engages in any conduct or practice which, in UOP's sole discretion, is or could be detrimental or harmful to the good name, goodwill and reputation of UOP or products. Termination does not affect any debt, claim, or cause of action accruing to any Party against the other before the termination. The rights of termination provided in this clause are not exclusive of other remedies that a Party may be entitled to under this Agreement or in law or equity, including, without limitation, payment for services performed and for losses sustained for materials, tools, construction equipment and machinery, reasonable overhead, profit, and applicable damages. UOP may suspend performance of any services under this Agreement at Company's expense if UOP determines that performance at Company's Site may violate the law and/or cause a safety, security, or health risk.

After any termination under this Agreement, neither Party will have any further rights or obligations under this Agreement except:

- (i) Company will remain liable under this Agreement for any amounts accrued prior to termination; and
- (ii) the restrictions on use, copying and disclosure of Proprietary Information under clause 6 and the liability limitations in clause 12 will remain in effect.

Cancellation. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, if Company terminates this Agreement for reasons other than Termination for Cause, UOP may invoice and Company shall pay UOP a cancellation fee with effect from the date Company's notice is received by UOP equal to:-

- Within 1 week of date of order placement/agreement: 5% of Purchase Price
- Within 2 weeks of date of order placement/agreement: 10% of Purchase Price
- 2 weeks or more after date of order placement/agreement or if Equipment is ready to deliver: 100% of Purchase Price

Any payments received from Company prior to cancellation will be credited against the cancellation fee, and all amounts exceeding the cancellation fee will be refunded to Company. If the applicable cancellation fee is not timely paid by Company, UOP may deliver any Equipment and invoice Company for the relevant amount, which invoice Company shall pay in accordance with the payment terms of this Agreement. UOP will retain ownership of all materials and documentation.

- 11. GOVERNING LAW & JURISDICTION - A. Where the UOP legal entity is organized in the United States of America, All questions or disputes arising out of or relating to this Agreement and its interpretation or enforcement (including its, breach, validity and termination), and the Parties' relationship, rights and liabilities relating hereto, whether arising in contract or otherwise ("Dispute"), shall be governed by the laws of the State of North Carolina without giving effect to any choice or conflict of law provision or rule (whether of the State of North Carolina or any other jurisdiction) that would cause the application of the laws of any jurisdiction other than the State of North Carolina. UOP and Company expressly agree to exclude from this Agreement the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act and United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods, 1980, and any successor thereto.

The Parties agree that the federal and state courts of Mecklenburg County, North Carolina shall be the sole and exclusive venue for any Dispute, and the Parties hereby consent and submit to the jurisdiction for such venue. The Parties irrevocably and unconditionally waive any objection to venue of any Dispute in such court and irrevocably waive and agree not to plead or claim in any such court that any Dispute has been brought in an inconvenient forum. The Parties agree that any Dispute proceeding in state court shall be litigated in the North Carolina Business Court in Charlotte, North Carolina to the fullest extent permitted by law. The Parties shall seek to designate any Dispute to the North Carolina Business Court as a complex business case under § 7A-45.4 of the North Carolina General Statutes and/or an exceptional case under Rule 2.1 of the North Carolina General Rules of Practice, and they hereby provide their consent to and agree not to contest designation to such court. If designation to the North Carolina Business Court is denied or otherwise prohibited by law, the Parties agree that any Dispute shall be litigated in Mecklenburg County Superior Court or the U.S. District Court for the Western District of North Carolina. Company will not bring a legal or equitable action more than one year after the cause of action arose unless a shorter period is provided by applicable law. EACH PARTY EXPRESSLY WAIVES ANY RIGHT TO A TRIAL BY JURY RELATED TO THIS AGREEMENT. Before the Parties initiate any dispute resolution process other than injunctive relief, the Parties must schedule a mandatory executive resolution conference to be held within thirty (30) days of receipt of the other Party's written request. The conference must be attended by at least one executive from each Party. At the conference, each Party will present its view of the Dispute in detail and the executives will enter into good faith negotiations in an attempt to resolve the Dispute. If the dispute is not resolved within fifteen (15) days of the end of the conference, then either Party may pursue resolution of the Dispute consistent with the other terms of this Agreement; or B. Where the UOP legal entity is organized in any country other than the USA, this Agreement and all matters related to this Agreement will be governed by, construed in accordance with, and enforced under the laws of the country in which the UOP legal entity is organized, without regard to conflicts of law principles, or for a UOP legal entity organized in Malaysia, the laws of Singapore, without regard to conflicts of law principles. The courts of the country in which the UOP legal entity is organized, or for Malaysia the courts of Singapore, as applicable, will have exclusive jurisdiction to adjudicate any dispute arising out of or related to this Agreement and the Parties hereby submit to the jurisdiction of such courts. UOP and Company expressly agree to exclude from this Agreement the Uniform Computer Information Transactions Act and United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods, 1980, and any successor thereto. Company will not bring a legal or equitable action more than one year after the cause of action arose unless a shorter period is provided by applicable law.

Subject to compliance this Section, UOP warrants that the Equipment (excluding software) will be (a) free from material defects in workmanship and materials and (b) conform to the specifications, if any, listed in this Agreement. Company must provide UOP with written notice of any claim for breach of such warranty upon the earlier to occur of (i) eighteen (18) months from the date of delivery or (ii) twelve (12) months from Start Up (the "Equipment Warranty Period"). This limited warranty does not cover defects caused by normal wear and tear or maintenance. UOP's sole liability and Company's exclusive remedy, which shall be determined in UOP's sole discretion, is limited to replacement or repair of the relevant Product(s) or a credit for the purchase price of the relevant Product, less depreciation. The Equipment Warranty Period does not restart for replacement Products, and any replacement Products will only be warranted for the remainder of the original Equipment Warranty Period, if any. This warranty is subject to the following conditions:

- (a) The Company's storage, installation, commissioning, operation and maintenance of the Equipment is conducted according to UOP procedures and sound engineering practices.
- (b) Where specified as a requirement in the UOP Proposal or is an option selected by the Company, the commissioning and Start Up of the Equipment is performed in the presence of UOP's technical representative(s) and Company follows the advice of such representative(s).
- (c) The Equipment is not damaged during shipment, storage, installation, operation or maintenance and is not altered or repaired without UOP's prior written consent.
- (d) The Equipment is operated in accordance to the design conditions that served as the basis for UOP's Equipment design, and Company keeps reasonably detailed records of the operation of the Equipment during the warranty period(s) and, upon UOP's request, allows UOP to examine such records.
- (e) Company will (i) allow UOP access to the Equipment to determine any defects and to make any repair or replacement, (ii) at UOP's request and Company's expense, operate the Equipment under controlled conditions to help UOP to determine the cause of failure and (iii) will furnish skilled personnel at the Site to make repairs/replacements according to UOP's procedures.
- (f) If UOP demonstrates that the Equipment is not in breach of any warranty or that a breach of any warranty is not due to the fault of UOP, then Company will pay for return freight and reimburse UOP for all costs and expenses incurred by or on behalf of UOP in responding to Company's claim at UOP's then regular rates. B. Warranty for Services. Services shall be performed in a professional and workmanlike manner in accordance with accepted engineering practices warranted for ninety (90) days from the date services are performed (the "Service Warranty Period"). All services re-performed are warranted for the remainder of the original Service Warranty Period. C. Warranty for Software. If applicable, UOP warrants that any supplied software, including firmware (computer programs contained permanently in a hardware device as a read only memory), shall be prepared in accordance with accepted engineering standards and as outlined in specifications supplied by UOP for the respective application. With respect to process analyzer equipment, this warranty shall expire sixty (60) calendar days after start-up of process analyzer equipment or one hundred and twenty (120) calendar days after shipment of process analyzer equipment, whichever occurs first. With respect to process control equipment, this warranty shall expire twelve (12) months after start-up of process control equipment or twenty four (24) months after shipment of process control equipment, whichever occurs first. During the period of this software warranty, any defective software shall be repaired or replaced, at UOP's option and at no cost to Company, or, if the defect is minor, UOP may direct Company to make the necessary correction; provided that Company gives UOP notice of any such defect within twenty (20) calendar days after discovery. UOP shall have no liability for use of the software in a manner other than as recommended by UOP. UOP does not warrant that operation of a processor, or of the software installed therein, will be uninterrupted or error free. D. Infringement Indemnity. UOP will pay damages finally awarded in any suit against Company based upon a finding that the design or construction of the Equipment sold under these terms directly infringes an unaffiliated third party's U.S. patent (or an unaffiliated third party foreign patent corresponding to an unaffiliated third party U.S. patent) in force as of the effective date of this Agreement, provided that Company has promptly notified UOP in writing of such claim of infringement. UOP has been given the right, solely at its option and expense, to defend and/or settle the claim and Company has provided UOP all reasonable assistance in the defense and/or settlement of the claim. These terms expressly disclaim and do not contain any warranties of noninfringement of intellectual property rights of any kind whatsoever. This indemnity does not apply to any claim of infringement arising from the use of any Equipment by itself or in combination with other material or in the operation of any process, any Equipment specially manufactured or modified by UOP according to specifications furnished by Company, or any equipment not used for its ordinary purpose. This indemnity states UOP's entire liability and Company's exclusive remedy for any actual or alleged infringement of intellectual property rights. E. Company Indemnity. In addition to any other Company indemnification obligations in this Agreement, Company will indemnify, defend, and hold UOP and its Affiliates, directors, employees and subcontractors harmless against allegations, claims, damages, settlements, fines and penalties and costs, including consultants and attorneys' fees (collectively, "Claims") arising out of Company's negligence or willful misconduct (or that of anyone under its control) due to any act or omission under this Agreement, Company's breach of its obligations or warranties under this Agreement or Company's infringement of any US third party patent or copyright. In connection with these indemnification obligations, Company agrees to the following "Indemnification Procedures": (a) Company will be entitled to control the defense and UOP shall give prompt notice of any Claim; (b) at Company's expense, UOP will reasonably cooperate in defense of the claim including promptly furnishing Company with all relevant information within its possession or control; (c) UOP may participate in the defense at its own expense and through counsel of its choosing; and (d) Company may not enter into any settlement, assume any obligation, or make any concession without the prior written approval of UOP, which approval may not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned or delayed.

"Data Controller" means a Party that alone or jointly with others, determines the purposes and means of the processing of Personal Data (as that term or similar variants may otherwise be defined in Applicable Data Privacy Laws).

"Personal Data" means any information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person or as that term or similar variants may otherwise be defined in Applicable Data Privacy Laws. Personal Data includes (i) relationship data about individuals provided by one Party to the other to manage the relationship between the Parties, and (ii) personally identifiable usage data made available by the Company to UOP in relation to the subject matter of this Agreement for the purposes of providing, improving, or developing UOP's processes, products and services. Each Party will process the Personal Data of the other as an independent Data Controller in accordance with Applicable Data Privacy Laws. Each Party represents that it has all rights and authorizations to transfer Personal Data to the other Party (including providing notice). To the extent required by Applicable Data Privacy Laws, each Party agrees to be bound by the terms of the Standard Contractual Clauses for the transfer of personal data to third countries pursuant to Regulation (EU) 2016/679 (including the provisions in Module 1) and the UK's International Data Transfer Addendum to the EU Commission Standard Contractual Clauses made under s119A(i) of the UK's Data Protection Act 2018 ("Controller SCCs") in its capacity as "data exporter" or "data importer", as applicable, and as those terms are defined therein. The Controller SCCs will be deemed to have been signed by each Party and are hereby incorporated by reference into this Agreement in their entirety as if set out in full as an annex to this Agreement. The Parties acknowledge that the information required to be provided in the appendices to the Controller SCCs is set out at <https://www.Honeywell.com/us/en/company/data-privacy>. Each Party will implement appropriate technical and organizational measures to protect the Personal Data against any security breaches. If there is a conflict between this Agreement and the Controller SCCs, the Controller SCCs will prevail. Where applicable law requires changes to the Controller SCCs, those changes will be deemed to have been made without further action from the Parties. If UOP processes Personal Data on Company's behalf under this Agreement, Honeywell's Data Processing Agreement at <https://www.Honeywell.com/us/en/company/data-privacy> will apply.

14. GENERAL PROVISIONS - Assignment. UOP may assign or transfer this Agreement, and assign its rights and delegate its obligations. Company shall not assign this Agreement, whether by merger, consolidation, operation of law or otherwise, and any attempt to do so without UOP's prior written consent shall be null and void. This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of and be binding upon any successor or permitted assign of the Parties. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, UOP may engage subcontractors to perform any of its obligations under this Agreement. Use of a subcontractor will not release UOP from liability under this Agreement for performance of the subcontracted obligations. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, UOP may assign this Agreement and its rights relating to payment for sales made under this Agreement without Company's consent and, notwithstanding any confidentiality obligations, may provide any purchaser of any such rights information and documents reasonably related to such sales, provided such purchaser has a confidentiality agreement in place with UOP that precludes disclosure of any Company confidential information to any third party without Company's consent. Assignment of this Agreement will not relieve the assignor of its obligations under clause 6.

Company Purchase Orders. Where applicable, Company shall have access to, maintain access, and use UOP's specified Electronic Data Interface ("EDI"). Company Purchase Orders and changes will be transmitted to UOP via such EDI. Purchase Orders will specify: (1) Purchase Order number; (2) UOP's part number including a general description of the Offering(s); (3) requested delivery dates, which will be no shorter than the published or contracted lead time; (4) price; (5) quantity; (6) location to which a product is to be shipped; (7) any special routing, packing, labeling, handling or insurance requested by Company, if applicable (with the understanding that this may result in additional Fees payable); and (8) location to which invoices will be sent for payment. Purchase Orders are subject to UOP's acceptance explicitly in writing or upon UOP's delivery of an Offering. UOP reserves the right to limit order quantities. For avoidance of doubt, UOP's order acknowledgment will not constitute acceptance and UOP reserves the right to reject any Purchase Order in its sole discretion and for any reason. Any Purchase Orders provided under this Agreement serve to identify the information referenced above and shall not, in themselves, create any commitment binding upon the Parties. For the avoidance of doubt, references to any Purchase Order under this Agreement shall not include any Terms and Conditions from Company contained therein, it being the agreement of the Parties that the General Terms and Conditions in this Agreement shall be binding.

Entire Agreement. This Agreement is the entire agreement, superseding all prior or contemporaneous written and verbal agreements or proposals and cannot be modified except by written agreement. The terms, conditions, pricing, schedule, addenda, technical annexes and other elements agreed between the Parties in this Agreement shall not apply, or be construed to apply, to any future agreement or course of dealing between the Parties except as expressly set forth in such future agreement or incorporated therein by express reference.

Feedback. If Company provides any improvements, suggestions, information or other feedback concerning the Offerings ("Feedback"), then Company hereby grants to UOP and its designees a worldwide, irrevocable, royalty-free, fully paid-up, sublicensable (through multiple tiers), perpetual right and license to exploit any Feedback for any purpose without restriction or obligation. Feedback will not be considered Company's Confidential Information or trade secret.

Independent Contractor. The Parties acknowledge that they are independent contractors and not the legal representative, agent, partner, employee, franchisee, joint venture or other representative of the other, and none of their respective employees, agents, or representatives shall be treated as an employee of the other for any purpose, including tax and social security coverage and withholding, or any employee benefits. Except as provided herein, neither Party has any right or authority to assume or create any obligations of any kind or to make any representations or warranties, whether expressed or implied, on behalf of the other, or to bind the other in any respect whatsoever. Neither Party shall hold itself out as, or represent to any third party that it is, affiliated with the other Party in any way. Furthermore, nothing contained in this Agreement shall be construed to constitute Company as an exclusive purchaser of the Offerings.

Legal Advice Disclaimer. Company acknowledges and agrees that UOP does not and shall not provide Company with any legal advice regarding compliance with laws, rules or regulations in the jurisdictions in which Company uses the Offering, including those related to data privacy or medical, pharmaceutical or health related data. Company acknowledges that the Offering has functionality that may be used in ways that do and do not comply with such laws, rules or regulations. It is Company's sole responsibility to monitor its (including its users') compliance with all such relevant laws, rules or regulations. Company is solely responsible for such Company-specific use decisions and UOP and its Affiliates disclaim all liability for such decisions.

Publicity. Neither Party will issue any press release or make any public announcement relating to the subject matter of this Agreement without the prior written approval of the other Party, except that either Party may make any public disclosure it believes in good faith is required by applicable law or any listing or trading agreement concerning its or its Affiliates' publicly traded securities. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if either Party, or a third party, makes a public disclosure related to this Agreement that is false or damaging to a Party, the aggrieved Party will have the right to make a public response reasonably necessary to correct any misstatement, inaccuracies or material omissions in the initial and wrongful affirmative disclosure without prior approval of the other Party. Neither Party will be required to obtain consent pursuant to this section for any proposed release or announcement that is consistent with information that has previously been made public without breach of its obligations under this clause. Notwithstanding the foregoing, UOP may list Company and its logo as a customer on Honeywell's website and in marketing materials.

Remedies. Except where specified to the contrary, the express remedies provided in this Agreement for breaches by UOP are in substitution for remedies provided by law or otherwise.

Severability. If any provision or portion of a provision of this Agreement is determined to be illegal, invalid, or unenforceable, the validity of the remaining provisions will not be affected. The Parties may agree to replace the stricken provision with a valid and enforceable provision.

Subcontractors. UOP has the right to subcontract its obligations under this Agreement. Use of a subcontractor will not release UOP from liability under this Agreement for performance of the subcontracted obligations.

Survival. Provisions of this Agreement that by their nature should continue in force beyond the completion or termination of this Agreement, or any associated orders, will remain in force.

Third Party Beneficiaries. Except as expressly provided to the contrary in this Agreement, the provisions of this Agreement are for the benefit of the Parties to this Agreement only and not for the benefit of any third party.

Trademarks. Company acknowledges that UOP is the owner of all right, title, and interest in, and to, its trademarks, trade names, service marks, logos and related designs associated with UOP and the Offerings ("Trademarks"). Unless Company enters into a separate written agreement with UOP, it may not use the Trademarks or benefit from any goodwill associated with the same. This includes, but is not limited to, Company not (i) using any trademark, name, trade name, domain name, logo, or icon similar to or likely to cause confusion with the Trademarks; (ii) making any representation to the effect that the Trademarks are owned by Company rather than UOP; (iii) attempting to register Trademarks in any country or challenge UOP's ownership of the same; (iv) using any domain name incorporating in whole or in part the Trademarks; or (v) using any name, trade name, domain name, keyword, social media name, account name, identification, or mark that is confusingly similar to the Trademarks.

Waiver. If any portion of this Agreement is held invalid or unenforceable, the remaining portions will remain in full force and effect. Any invalid or unenforceable portions will be interpreted to effect the intent of the original portion. If such construction is not possible, the invalid or unenforceable portion will be severed from this Agreement, but the rest of this Agreement will remain in full force and effect. Failure to enforce or exercise any provision is not a waiver of such provision unless such waiver is specified in writing and signed by the Party against which the waiver is asserted.

UOP's sale is limited to the terms herein and any additional or different terms or conditions in Company's Purchase Order or any other agreement or understanding are deemed to be material alterations and are rejected and not binding upon UOP. UOP's acceptance of Company's Purchase Order is expressly conditional upon Company's acceptance of these terms.
